PERILS OF LAND AND SEA.

Captain Willnef's Remarkable Escape Shows What to Do in Time of Trouble.

For many years Captain Willnef, says the Times of Gloucester, Mass., was one of the best known seamen in the Gloucester fleet. The sea and its dangers had no terror for him, but the catarrhal troubles with which he suffered for fifteen years made him dread the nights at sea, for he had to walk the cabin floor, being unable to lie down and sleep on account of the constant catarrhal dropping.

Captain Willnef went to two different hospitals for treatment, but could get no lasting benefit. He constantly raised yellow and green phlegm and his trouble became so unbearable and nauseating that he was ashamed to go out in company. When despairing of ever getting relief, his wife purchased a Hyomei outfit for him, and, trying it before going to bed, he enjoyed the first whole night's sleep for ten years. Captain Willnef says: "I have used less than two bottles of Hyomei and have been cured by the remedy. My friends ask me what is responsible for my improvement, and I tell them Hyomei, which has given me full and complete recovery."

Captain Willnef's experience shows our readers what to do in time of catarrhal trouble—use Hyomei. This remarkable treatment kills the germs of catarrh and makes lasting and permanent cures. Rickert & Wells sell Hyomei under their personal guarantee to refund the money if it does not give quick relief.
